

LICENSED EDUCATIONAL PSYCHOLOGIST/SCHOOL PSYCHOLOGIST

Are you a School Psychologist looking to try something new? Are you looking to be a part of a supportive and collaborative team? Are you looking for the flexibility and autonomy of a private setting? Then we may be the right fit for you!

We are looking for talented clinicians to join our group practice! Green Leaf is a small psychology clinic nestled in the hills east of San Francisco, with locations in both Lafayette and Orinda. We specialize in providing cutting-edge, evidence-based assessment and intervention services to kids, adults, and families. We place a high value on customer service and professionalism while maintaining a welcoming, friendly, and supportive environment.

Green Leaf clinicians work independently with the backing of a team. Without the daunting tasks of marketing, billing, and maintaining overhead, our clinicians are able to spend their time doing what they love - helping their clients improve their lives! We are seeking full- and part-time clinicians who want an opportunity to practice their skills while growing in their area of expertise.

What We Are Looking For:

We are looking for an educational psychologist to conduct psychoeducational testing for children in a private setting. We are looking for candidates with excellent diagnostic skills who are devoted to the wellbeing of their clients.. They demonstrate a high degree of professionalism with excellent interpersonal skills. We are seeking a clinician who wants to practice as part of a collaborative team and is eager to receive helpful and constructive feedback to grow their skills!

Requirements:

Must have training/experience in cognitive/academic/social-emotional testing with children

Must participate in in-house, case consultation meetings (Tuesdays at 11)

Must have familiarity with electronically-based assessment tools

May have either LEP or PPS license

Benefits:

Client referrals

Access to cutting-edge resources and clinical training

Ongoing case consultation with a team of clinicians with diverse interests

Access to full library of clinical resources and testing materials

Malpractice insurance

Cell phone reimbursement package

Admin support

Electronic health records

Upscale office environment

Health Benefits
401k